

Technical Systems Analyst, Sr. –Exam 7557
Full- Time Regular
Salary Depends on Qualifications
Gainesville, Florida

The City Of Gainesville's Public Works Department currently has an opening for a qualified Technical Systems Analyst, Senior to design, configure, and troubleshoot technical applications that are critical to the department. This is highly advanced professional and technically complex work analyzing, designing, implementing, and maintaining departmental automated/computerized systems.

To qualify for this position you must have:

- A bachelor degree from an accredited college or university with major course work in information technology, computer sciences, data management and analytics. computer programming, information science, or systems engineering, and four (4) years of progressively responsible Information Technology experience relevant to the needs and subject matter of the hiring department,

Or

- An associate degree from an accredited college or university with major course work in information technology, computer sciences, computer programming, information sciences or system engineering, and six (6) years progressively responsible Information Technology experience relevant to the needs and subject matter of the hiring department. AA/DFWP/EOE/VP

Visit our website to apply- <https://www.governmentjobs.com/careers/gainesville>